

MOOR DOWNS JUNIOR GOLF HISTORY

A PGA Professional and Club Manager of Moor Downs Golf Course since the early 1970's, Tom Adrian had a great passion for the game of golf, especially when it came time to educating Junior and young beginner golfers.

Adrian offered a package of 4 Junior Lessons for the price of $5.00. Every time a junior would participate in his scheduled lesson, he would give $1.00 back to the child. If the child came to all 4 lessons, thus getting $4.00 returned, Tom would buy him/her a soda and a hot dog with the remaining $1.00.

Tom retired from Moor Downs in 1999. He was a great ambassador to the game of golf and a wonderful instructor of youth players.
